Forage Crops Discussed By County Agent

Hog production in Shelby County is being expanded, and this can only be done profitably by proper management and production of sufficient feeds.

Feed constitutes the bulk of the cost in producing hogs; profits and losses are determined largely by the kind and amount of feed consumed. Pastures supply the cheapest and most economical feed. With a year-round grazing system it is not necessary to use large amounts of high-priced concentrated feeds, except during a few months.

Oats, vetch, and crimson clover are the best winter and spring grazing crops, but it is the purpose of this article to deal with summer and fall crops.

Soybeans is one of the best summer grazing crops. O-Ton-Tan soybeans should be planted about cotton planting time, using about 2 pecks of seed per acre with 200 to 300 pounds of acid phosphate. The beans are ready to begin grazing when 12 to 18 inches high, and continue to graze until the fall crops are ready.

Corn and soybeans planted in alternate rows should be planted to finish hogs. If corn is not following vetch, then it should be fertilized with 200 pounds of nitrate of soda or nitrate of lime when it has been planted about 35 to 40 days. One acre of soybeans should carry from 3 to 4 hogs and one acre of corn and soybeans should carry 4 hogs.

If I can be of help in your hog program, call on me.—A. A. Lauderdale, County Agent.

B. P. W. TO MEET

The Business and Professional Women's Club will meet at the St. George Hotel at 7:30 p.m. Monday, May 1, for its annual business meeting. Reports will be made by all committees and new officers will be installed.

BAPTIST BROTHERHOOD CLASS

Much interest and good attendance continue to mark the Sunday meetings of the Baptist Brotherhood Class.

Last Sunday the following were present: J. R. Lewis, R. L. Griffin, B. B. Nix, S. R. Woolley, James Hudson, Denson Thomas, J. L. Bridges, W. D. Carver, L. C. Payne, R. C. Tucker, C. B. Blankenship, A. W. Day, W. N. Robinson, Hobart Love, Francis Killingsworth, Travis Killingsworth, J. A. Love, Milton Jeter, and the class president, S. J. McGaughy.

Next Sunday is homecoming day at our church. We would like to see every member and prospective member in attendance. Come and bring a friend.

Legion Auxiliary Holds Fidac Meeting

The American Legion Auxiliary held its monthly meeting at the Little House last Thursday night. Mrs. Glennie Nybeck was in charge of a program on Fidac. Miss Aline Dalsace, of France, and Miss Sarah Shore of Argentina gave talks on their native countries. A short business session followed.

Members present were Mrs. J. L. Appleton, Mrs. Robert Holcomb, Mrs. Fred Frost, Mrs. Reese Woolley, Mrs. M. P. Jeter, Mrs. A. E. Baumgartner, Mrs. Glennie Nybeck, Mrs. P. D. Pendleton, Mrs. W. M. Wyatt, Mrs. Lena Duran, Mrs. J. I. Reid, Mrs. B. B. Fancher, Mrs. M. G. Dabney, and Mrs. L. D. Gilbert.

Guests were Misses Virginia Frost, Jeanne Appleton, Theda Wyatt, Louise Thomas, Clementine Thomas, Sarah Shore, Aline Dalsace, Myra Frost, Helen Dabney, Anne Appleton, Sylvia Appleton, Frances Nybeck, Betty Jean Pendleton, and Sister Baumgartner.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Reid, Mrs. Dabney, Mrs. Gilbert, and Mrs. Fancher.

Correct Use Of Flag Is D. A. R. Subject

The David Lindsay Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met Monday evening, April 24, at the home of Mrs. Eugene Reynolds, with Dr. Peck as assisting hostess. After the ritual Mrs. Kennerly, regent, conducted a short business meeting. Mrs. Napier, Dr. Peck, and Mrs. Willis were appointed as the nominating committee. A letter from Mr. Evans, principal of the Kate Duncan Smith School, was read, in which he acknowledged with appreciation the contribution by the local chapter of books for the school.

Mrs. Willis Lyman spoke on the correct use of the flag. Particularly interesting was a soliloquy of a woman about to become a naturalized citizen as she pondered the meaning of the stars on the blue field. Mrs. Lyman called attention to the splendid training given in the schools of Montevallo and in the Boy and Girl Scout organizations on correct use of and respect for the flag.

Mrs. Willis gave the principal talk of the evening on the English side of the trouble leading to the Revolution. This was ably handled and revealed great surprise and regret on the part of the mother country that her distant and little known colonies should have been able to gain independence.

A delicious salad plate was served to the following: Mesdames Kennerly, Willis, Napier, LeBaron, Bohn, Lyman, and Vaughan by Mrs. Reynolds and Dr. Peck.

Missionary Society

The Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church held its regular monthly business meeting Monday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, at the church, with Mrs. L. C. Parnell leading the devotional period.

The meeting was opened by singing "He Leadeth Me." Mrs. Parnell's subject was "What God Expects Us to Do," and she used as her scripture Luke 4: 14-18 and Luke 1: 46-56. The talk was instructive and inspirational, and caused one to think, "Am I doing what God is expecting of me?"

Mrs. J. P. Kelly, president, presided over the business meeting, at the conclusion of which the group enjoyed a most interesting report of the district conference by Mrs. T. H. Napier, who represented the society at the meeting in Jasper in March.

Baptist Church

"Home Coming" will be observed by the church Sunday and at the morning service there will be a roll call of all the members of the church who live near enough to attend the services of the church.

Do you know who the members of the church are? Do you know who the deacons are? Do you know who the officers of the organizations are? Do you realize what it would mean if all the members of the church should come to church at the same time? Come next Sunday morning and learn the answers to these questions — and perhaps others that you have wondered about.

"I Love Thy Church" will be the pastor's theme at the Sunday morning service. At 7:30 p.m. he will speak on "A Bruised Reed." Sunday School meets at 9:45 a.m. and the Baptist Training Union at 6:45 p.m.

BOY SCOUTS

Our Scout troop was well represented at the Scout rally held in West Blocton last Saturday. The ones that went were Donald Vaughan, Winston Peterson, Bob Barnes, Pic Bridges, Bernard Mitchell, Ed Jeter Phillips, Bubba Davis, and Robert Edward Lyman.

Points of grading were given on signaling, knot tying, first aid, bugling, Scout pace, identifying plants, and numbers of boys in uniform.

The troops were graded as A, B, or C, according to the number of points they got. No troop received an A grading. We received a B rating and would have done better if we had had our signaling.

Baptist Student Union Meets In Montevallo

Annual Spring Retreat Here Is One of The Most Successful Ever Held

The annual Spring Retreat of the Baptist Student Union of Alabama was held at Montevallo Baptist Church, beginning last Saturday at 10 o'clock, and continuing to Sunday at noon. One hundred and fifteen out-of-town visitors registered.

Representatives were here from nearly all the college campuses in the state — Alabama College, Auburn, Howard, Judson, University of Alabama, Jacksonville, Troy, Florence, and Birmingham-Southern.

The sessions were presided over by William Weaver, student at Howard, and president of the State Baptist Student Union. The main speakers on the programs were Miss Mary Nance Daniel, of Nashville, associational secretary of the South-wide Baptist Student Union; Dr. Ross E. Dillon, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Troy; Rev. Chester Quarles, of Montgomery; Rev. Davis Woolley, Baptist Student Secretary at Auburn; Rev. DeWitt Matthews, Baptist Student Secretary at the University of Alabama; and Miss Eva Berry, young people's leader of the Alabama Baptist W. M. U.

This meeting of the Baptist Student Union leaders and officials is held annually in the spring at one of the college churches in the state. Its purpose is to plan work for the following year, and to give information and inspiration to those who are to lead the Baptist Student Union.

The newly elected officers of the B. S. U. of all colleges in the state were invited to this session. Most of them came. Much of the time was given to outlining and discussing the specific duties of the various officers. This Spring Retreat was the best attended and the most successful ever held, according to the leaders who were present.

Memorial Exercises Held Wednesday

Memorial exercises were held at the Baptist Church Wednesday morning, sponsored by the U. D. C. chapter of Montevallo. The church was beautifully decorated with red and white flowers and flags. The program consisted of invocation by Dr. F. B. Pearson; songs by the Elementary School Glee Club, directed by Mrs. Josephine Waller, which were enjoyed by all; a splendid address by Dr. I. T. Sanders of Alabama College. Dr. Sanders' subject was "The Changing South." Prizes were awarded to Billy Ingram of the fifth grade and Joyce Baker of the sixth grade.

The services were continued at the corner of Main and Valley Streets, where the memorial boulder was dedicated. Mrs. Bessie McCary and Mrs. F. W. Rogan unveiled the boulder. Mr. W. J. Kennerly of Alabama College made a most appropriate address in dedicating the stone, which was decorated with flags and a green wreath.

Dr. F. B. Pearson pronounced the benediction which concluded the program.

NOTICE TO ALL MASONS

The Shelby County Masonic Conference will be held in Shelby Lodge 140 at Columbiana, on Tuesday, May 9, opening at 2 p.m. The Grand Master and other distinguished brethren will meet with us and it is urged that a good representation from each lodge in the county be present.

Work in the first three degrees will be exemplified by selected teams and the Grand Master has a message of vital importance to every Mason in the state.

It is not often that we are honored by the presence of the Grand Master in our county, and it is the wish of the officers of the conference that every Master Mason in this jurisdiction meet with us.

INVITATION

The Brownie troop of Girl Scouts will be "at home" in the Girl Scout Little House from 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday afternoon, April 30.

This troop is composed of little girls from 7 to 10 years old. If you have not visited the Little House, come and let these little girls show you through.

DR. FREEMAN'S LECTURES

The members of the journalistic profession in Alabama should find much more than ordinary interest in the lectures scheduled at Alabama College April 27 and 28, by Dr. Douglas S. Freeman, editor of the Richmond News-Leader.

Dr. Freeman is among the outstanding editors of the country. He ranks at the top, both in American journalism and in American scholarship. He occupies a place of active leadership in such a variety of state and national affairs as has been attained by few journalists in American history.

The lectures of Dr. Freeman, and an accompanying musical program by the college orchestra and glee club, will be open to the public. The college invites especially the attendance of men and women who are interested in the development of Southern thought and ideals.

Newspaper people of Alabama should take advantage of this invitation from Alabama College, and utilize this opportunity to hear one of the greatest of our profession.

ACTION!

We Pledged . . . The Brewers and Alabama Beer Distributors Committee five weeks ago gave David E. Dunn, former ABC Board Administrator, full authority to direct the self-regulation program of the brewing industry in this State.

Why? Because law violations in a small minority of retail outlets threatened public respect for a scientific industry paying more than $5,000,000 each year in taxes and wages to Alabama and Alabamians.

In keeping with the United Brewers Industrial Foundation's national self-discipline program, Mr. Dunn accepted his new responsibility with a promise of ACTION. To the challenge of the few retail outlets flagrantly violating the law, Mr. Dunn answered: "Such places must clean up or close up!"

Performance . . . With Alabama's Alcoholic Beverage Control Board at work on the same front, Mr. Dunn was able to carry the program of the Brewers and Alabama Beer Distributing Committee direct to this headquarters of official action.

Acting on case reports from Mr. Dunn, the ABC Board revoked the licenses of three retail beer outlets, indefinitely suspended one retail liquor license, and cited three outlets for hearing on April 28.

On cases initiated by its own agents, the ABC Board revoked five licenses, suspended eleven, and cited six licensees to appear at the April 28 hearing.

To The People Of Alabama!

"Through the fine cooperation of Chairman E. Roy Albright and Dr. J. H. McCormick of the ABC Board, our work is keeping pace with our original hopes," says Mr. Dunn, on behalf of the Brewers and Alabama Beer Distributors Committee.

And to the owners of those few retail beer outlets where objectionable conditions are permitted to surround the sale of beer, Mr. Dunn speaks plainly:

"The results should leave no one in doubt that we mean business!"

On this record of performance, and on a pledge of continued action in the public interest, the Brewers and Alabama Beer Distributors Committee is going right ahead!

Andy Heath Celebrates Birthday

Mrs. Edna Heath entertained Tuesday afternoon, April 25, honoring her little grandson, Andy Heath, on his ninth birthday. The house was beautifully decorated with sweet peas and roses.

Games and contests were enjoyed by the little guests. Songs, led by Miss Waurene Jones, Andy's teacher, were sung during the party. Later in the afternoon the beautiful birthday cake was cut and served with ice cream. Suckers were given each guest. Those attending this delightful affair were Dorothy Ann Baumgartner, Betty Jean Baker, Jack Payne, Lloyd Crowe, Maxine Vincent, Melvin Klotzman, Henry Taylor Davis, Charles Cox, Billy Tate, Carolyn Shores, John Milton Davis, Gene Baldwin, Helen Hood, Joe and Jack McGaughy.

Mrs. Heath was assisted in entertaining by Mesdames Ilee Lee, Luther McGaughy, Mack Vincent, and Miss Waurene Jones.

Alice Boyd Circle

The Alice Boyd Circle of the Baptist Missionary Society met Monday night, April 24, with Miss Ouida Thompson at the St. George Hotel. A very interesting program on "Our Great Commission" was led by Miss Thompson. The devotional was given by Miss Lela Wade Rice. Others on the program were Mrs. Glennie Nybeck, Miss Waurene Jones, and Miss Mary Love Martin.

After the program a social hour was enjoyed. Ginger ale, ice cream, and cakes were served to the following members: Miss Jacque Battle, Miss Waurene Jones, Miss Rosa Lee Wells, Mrs. Ashley Jeter, Miss Lela Wade Rice, Miss Mary Love Martin, Mrs. Glennie Nybeck, Mrs. Lillian Ward, Mrs. Roy B. Hicks, Miss Ouida Thompson, and two visitors, Mrs. Ida Hendrick and Miss Dorothy Hunt.

Baptist Missionary Society

The Women's Missionary Society of the Baptist Church met at the church Monday afternoon, April 24, for their Royal Service program and business meeting. Mrs. Edwin Allen was leader of an interesting program on the Spanish-speaking people of South America, Mexico, and Cuba. Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Nelson gave the devotional. Others in the program were Mesdames L. C. Horn, Phillips, W. L. Brown, M. P. Jeter, Della Mulkey, Kilpatrick, and J. I. Riddle.

Mrs. J. I. Riddle, president of the society, presided over the business meeting. The society welcomed one new member, Mrs. Parker. Others present were Miss Mae Woods, Mesdames Mary L. Hare, W. L. Brown, Fred Frost, L. C. Horn, J. A. Woods, Phillips, Nelson, J. O. Rhodes, M. P. Jeter, R. A. Reid, Kilpatrick, Edwin Allen, J. I. Riddle, and J. L. Bridges.

Student Display at Little Shop

The display windows at the Little Shop have been most festive for several weeks. When we asked the reason, we learned that the class in commercial art, under the direction of Miss Dawn Kennedy, supervisor of art at Alabama College, has been securing actual commercial experience.

Each student has selected her own project to be developed and presented from time to time until the close of school. "Signs of Spring," by Miss Mary Diamond, greeted us at Easter time. At present the windows are gay with tiny hats, big bags and accessories, by Miss Doris Cowan.

In one of the display units in the Little Shop, we found a term project presented by the students of Dr. Anne Eastman's Home Economics American History classes. Each student has done considerable research in her chosen period before she prepared her miniature costumes. These students are all home economics majors who are correlating costume design with American history.

Historic costumes are on display tracing the development of style up to the present. Style tendencies, accurately shown in each model, hand made, with each detail faithfully produced.

The management of the Little Shop will be very glad to have anyone come in at any time to see these displays.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Isbell of Birmingham and Mrs. Frank Miller of Helena and her little granddaughter, Ann Lee Shaw, of Columbiana, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Viola DeShazo.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Goodwin and son, Roy Edwin, of Bessemer, spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary McLaughlin.

Mrs. R. A. Reid, Mrs. M. P. Jeter, and Miss Margaret Evans spent Wednesday in Birmingham.

Mrs. Clay Owens and daughter, Pattie Sue, of Six Mile, were visitors in town Tuesday.

Miss Margaret Ward and Mr. Roy Gilley of Birmingham were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Holder Saturday.

Mr. Aubrey Fore of Evergreen was a visitor in town Sunday afternoon.

Dr. M. L. Orr returned to his home Tuesday from Chicago, where he attended a meeting of the directors of progressive education work shops.

We are sorry that Master Pep Jeter is on the sick list this week. We wish for him a speedy recovery.

Miss Sallie Hooker and Mr. Ed Hooker attended the Birmingham-New Orleans game in Birmingham Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wyatt and little son, Pat, spent the week-end in Montgomery with Mr. and Mrs. Courtland Rutherford.
